

SALON DIRECTORY

Mirror, mirror on the wall. Which salon is the fairest of them all? All of these are pretty special!

I am just a regular girl looking trying to make the best out of my dark hair. I cannot begin to say enough nice things about my colorist, Paul Cucinello of the Christopher Stanley Salon in NYC. I just am so happy with what he has done for my hair that I just want him to get noticed.

As a brunette looking for the perfect mix of caramel, walnut and honey highlights without a red or brassy tones, I have been on the eternal search for the top colorist in New York City – a man who can work magic on dark hair. I have been to the TOP salons on Fifth Avenue searching high and low for great color. Some were mediocre, some were a disaster and others were just not worth the cash.

Then on one magical day, I came across Paul's name on the web. I was desperate. After a botched at-home job, I figured I'd give Paul a shot—after all he was voted Best Colorist by New York Magazine. Paul took his time looking at my hair and recommended a "cure." He didn't want me to go too far away from my natural brunette color but recommended a few highlights that would add dimension and look natural while keeping my hair healthy.

I walked out of that salon AMAZED and almost in tears. My dark, boring hair was now showing beautiful shades of brown! I have been stopped on the street by other brunettes asking me who does my hair. I am so ready to tell them: It's Paul Cucinello! Run...don't walk to make an appointment with this adorable man! He's the best.—Lina Allocca

Salon Santa Fe and Spa

Route 130 & Chestnut Hill Dr.
Cinnaminson, NJ 08077
Tel: 856-829-1115

WEB: www.salonsantafe-andspa.com

The only problem that you might face at Salon Santa Fe might be getting an appointment. Luckily they've undergone their third complete renovation since opening in 1992 and the place looks as bright and beautiful as ever. It's the little touches that we love about this popular salon and spa, like the soothing music that greets you when you walk through the door and the fragrant aromas that always fill the air—but best of all we like the way we look and feel when we are walking out the door. Women's cuts start at $25 (don't be afraid to bring the hubby and kids for a great cut too!) and their color jobs and waves are out-of-this-world.
