

Celebrity Stylist Opens Suburbia Salon and Spa in the Valley

After spending nearly two decades creating some of Hollywood's hottest looks, celebrity hair stylist and colorist Jennifer Nash has opened a beauty oasis on Ventura Boulevard. Suburbia salon is already bustling with activity. Suburbia offers a full range of salon and spa services including; color, cuts, extensions, manicures, pedicures and facials. "The shop is a true one-stop make-over retreat where busy women can come in, multitask, and get all their services done," said Nash.

"My goal was to have a shop where everyone is treated like a star and where my customers from the Valley can come and get the same quality of service that I've been providing for clients in Beverly Hills for years," said Jennifer Nash.

Nash's signature is turning out buttery blondes and creating face flattering cuts. Also creating Suburbia's signature looks is stylist Rick Henry, who has done hair for Carmen Electra, Paris Hilton and Jenny McCarthy, among others.

The 3,000 square foot salon features a mod blue and white design aesthetic and wall to wall windows providing plenty of light for the 18 chairs, which line two rooms. The cozy white manicure and pedicure room is secluded and quiet as are the two treatment rooms for facials and waxing.
